

ELA MENU

Click the link to locate the text: Catching the Moon: The Story of a Young Girl's Baseball Dream written by Crystal Hubbard

Link: <https://www.storylineonline.net/books/catching-the-moon-the-story-of-a-young-girls-baseball-dream>

Choose from the activities listed below:

Listen to the text

Catching the Moon:
The Story of a
Young Girl's Baseball
Dream by written by Crystal Hubbard.

Think about it!....

After you listen to the story answer these reading focus questions:

- What was the main character's dream?
- What obstacles did she face in realizing her dream?
- How did she overcome

Take me out to the ballgame!

Students can rewrite the lyrics to a song. They can share the song or make a music video..

MATERIALS — Google It!: Search "Take Me out to the Ball Game" video and lyrics.

Have students learn "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Students can use the song's words to rewrite the lyrics to suit another sport or activity they like (soccer, basketball, football, dance, skating, etc)

Share your new song with your parents or a family member.

Serve baseball food like hot dogs, peanuts, crackerjacks, cotton candy, and soft pretzels.

MYON - BASEBALL

Read a nonfiction baseball book on Myon.

1. Go to Clever. Click Myon.
2. Click Library, then click search- type in baseball nonfiction.
3. Choose a nonfiction book to read.
4. Write a summary and share three facts you learned from the book.
5. Share a video summary or written summary with your family or on Seesaw.

BASEBALL RESEARCH

Students will write a report or create an infographic (baseball card) on a famous female baseball player using grade appropriate sentence vocabulary, writing and word choice.

1. Select a female baseball player to research.
2. Locate books or use internet for research on selected famous female baseball player.
3. Gather information from resources and complete a thinking map.
4. Use your information to write a report or complete an infographic.

