

Psychology MINOR Q3 Grade Recovery Opportunity #4

Perspectives Analysis

This exercise will give you an opportunity to think critically about the perspectives/approaches from Unit 1.

Do you believe that violence is a part of human nature? Is violent behavior something that can someday be removed from human behavior or, at the very least, controlled? Think about these questions. Then, provide your thoughts for each perspective with these questions in mind.

Behavioral:

Cognitive:

Biological:

Social-Cultural:

Humanistic:

Psychoanalytic:

Look back at your notes or do a quick Google search if you have forgotten the approaches/perspectives and what they mean.

You must type in complete sentences. No minimum length required as long as you have properly answered the question.
