

After reading/listening to The Giver chapters 21-23, choose one of the options below:

Option 1: The Giver's Speech

Prepare a speech for The Giver to deliver to the community after Jonas escapes. The speech should offer comfort AND prepare people to deal with how the memories will change their lives. Type the speech in either Pages or Word. Once finished, submit to your teacher as directed in the weekly email.

Speech Expectations:

- first person point of view (from The Giver's perspective)
- multi-paragraph response
 - addresses both COMFORT and PREPARATION mentioned in the prompt
 - includes a relevant introduction and conclusion
- grade appropriate spelling and grammar

Option 2: The Giver Soundtrack

Create a soundtrack for The Giver. You will need to find 3 songs that connect to the novel. Consider choosing a song that describes Jonas or The Giver. Or perhaps you might choose a song that describes the escape of Jonas and Gabriel. Prepare your submission in Keynote or Powerpoint with a minimum of 4 slides meeting the criteria below. Submit your work based on the teacher directions in the weekly email.

Title slide should include:

- Your name
- Title of book
- Title of assignment

Sound track slides should include: (3 total)

- Name of song and artist
- Graphics - either of the song, or of a representation of the scene from the book
- Brief description of which scene from the text this song will play
- Explanation of how the lyrics/music of this song connect to the reading at this specific moment
