

Storyboard That: Abraham or Moses

Step 1: Website Needed: <https://www.storyboardthat.com>

- Try to access Storyboard That through Clever first (this will give you access to all the features of the site).
- If you can't access it through Clever, then you can go directly to the website and make a free storyboard.

Step 2: Storyboard Setup:

- Select "Create a Storyboard"
- Select "Add/Delete Cells" from the options at the bottom of the screen.
- Choose a 3x2 grid and click "update storyboard."
- Select "Layout" from the options at the bottom of the screen.
Choose the "Cell, & Description" layout.
- Use the menu items across the top (scenes, characters, textables, etc) to drag the items you want into each picture cell.

Step 3: Storyboard Content Directions:

- Choose what you want your focus to be-- Abraham Travels to Canaan or Moses and The Exodus
- Using 6 boxes, retell the events.
- In the large blank "cell," create a picture describing the event. Remember things like what part of the world these events take place in and time period when creating your picture
- In the "description" box below each cell, explain what is going on in the picture. Use the captions below to guide you.

Event Description: Abraham Travels to Canaan- Use these bullet points for your description boxes if you choose this option.

YOU WILL HAVE TO PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT ORDER!!

- One day, God told him to leave Ur and move his family to Canaan.
- God promised Abraham that Canaan would be the land of his descendants if he would move there.
- His descendants, in the future, became the Israelites, or God's chosen people.
- Abraham told everyone about his message from God once he arrived Canaan.
- There was a man named Abraham who lived in in Ur, Mesopotamia.
- Abraham listened, and moved his family to Canaan.

Event Description: Moses and The Exodus- Use these bullet points for your description boxes if you choose this option.

YOU WILL HAVE TO PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT ORDER!!

- Fearing they may take over, the Pharaoh enslaved the Hebrews.
- Moses lead the Hebrews on a 40 year Exodus back to Israel; he received the Ten Commandments from God along the way.
- Moses told the Pharaoh to free the Hebrews; at first, the Pharaoh said no.
- Many years after the story of Abraham, the Hebrews were suffering from a famine, and left Canaan. They went to Egypt in search of food.
- One day, Moses received a message from God to go free the Hebrews from the Egyptian Pharaoh.
- Eventually, the Pharaoh agreed to release them.

Step 4: Turning it in:

Follow your teacher's instructions to turn the storyboard in. If you need to screenshot your completed storyboard, use one of these commands:

- Screenshot your entire computer screen: command + shift + 3
- Use a cursor to select just a portion of your screen: command + shift + 4
