ARE YOU A GOOD SPORT?

Explain how you would handle four sticky situations.

1 There's a new kid on your hockey team who's just learning the game. He gives the puck to the other team by mistake, and they score a goal. What do you do?

2 Jackson is organizing a game of basketball at recess with a few other boys. Camila runs over with her ball and says she'd like to join. Jackson tells her their game is just for boys. You're standing nearby. What do you do?

---

---

---

3 Your team hits a game-winning home run. Everyone is jumping up and down and celebrating at home plate. You see the opposing team's pitcher still standing on the mound. He is upset, with his face in his glove. What do you do?

---

---

4 You're running in an 800-meter race. As you near the finish line, you and one other runner are right next to each other. You see the other runner's foot cross the finish line first. But the official says that you won. What do you do?
