

Part A: Find two works of art created in response to turmoil in our world. Compare and contrast the two. Should art reflect the times, or be timeless?

Part B: Create your own work of art in reaction to or inspired by the things going on in your world. Your artwork can be serious or satirical.

Create a video or a drawing about:
A: How much you miss school
B: How happy you are that school is out

Write about or illustrate how you are spending your time at home.

Create a maze.
